You’ll get a series of widely used keyboard shortcuts to save a lot of time and effort.

Pressing Ctrl+Alt+K will open the format converter, insert a text into the selected file, and save the source content. When you need to attach a file with your message, just press Ctrl+A. Next, hit the C key, and select the target document where you need to place it. Then, choose the icon of your choice to upload the file and close the document. Once the file is uploaded, press Ctrl+Alt+K again to make it the start of the text. When you choose to save the text to the selected file, hit the Ctrl+Alt+P and then the S key to write the content into the document. Create a Presentation: This feature will allow you to choose an existing presentation or start from scratch. Just launch the file converter and choose which format you need.

You can save the conversion result in any format you want. Once you've completed the conversion, choose the location where you want to save the files and click Save to Save the output. The program does not require any installation, and you can download it for free at.
